HART, TEXAS CASTRO COUNTY VOLUME 1 NUMBER 06 MAY 30, 2014

Graduation Is Tonight at 8 p.m. at the Elementary Gymnasium

Cailin Neudorf
VALEDICTORIAN, 95.65

Nathan Rincon
SALUTATORIAN, 94.22

Cailin Neudorf is the valedictorian of her senior class. The daughter of Ramona Neudorf, she plans to attend Texas Tech University and major in education, with plans of being a teacher and coach.

She enjoys spending her free time playing basketball and hanging out with her two younger sisters.

Her favorite memories of high school include seeing elementary girls on Fridays during football season... "their faces would light up when they saw a cheerleader...so sweet. To them, my name was 'cheerleader.'"

Cailin played varsity basketball in high school, and received all-district basketball honors. She was invited to play in the Amarillo Globe-News All-

Nathan Rincon is the class salutatorian and is the son of Dario and Andrea Rincon.

His hobbies are spending time with friends and family, and playing ball.

He plans to get an associates degree in physical education at South Plains College.

He played basketball, tennis and golf while in high school, and was class vice-president and reporter for the Student Council. He was in FCCLA and a member of the National Honor Society.

Also, he was a member of the state qualifying robotics team his senior year.

Honor Students Named

Hart High School announces the top five academic honor students for the 2013-14 school year, along with their Grade Point Averages: Cailin Neudorf (valedictorian), 95.65; Nathan Rincon (salutatorian), 94.22; Anna Macias, 93.92; Gilbert Olivarez, 92.34; and Adolfo Avila, 91.53.

Graduation ceremony will begin at 8 p.m. on Friday, May 30, in the elementary gym.

Baccalaureate services were Sunday evening at St. John's Catholic Church. Wilbur Ormond, pastor of First United Methodist Church, brought the baccalaureate message. The invocation was worded by Father Raj Malapady, pastor of St. John's, and the benediction was given by Kenny Lydick, interim pastor of First Baptist Church.

Marshals are Mayra Maldonado and Jaime Rivera.
