Catch Me If You Can—Jose Luna, left, on a touchdown run in the game between the Longhorns and the Kress Kangaroos on Aug. 29 at Kress. Hart won 57-28. Luna, with six touchdowns in that game, was looking to be an important go-to player for the Longhorns. However, in the ‘Horns’ second game of the season last Friday here against Lubbock’s Kingdom Prep, Luna suffered a season-ending knee injury in the fourth quarter. The sophomore running back wasn’t medically cleared last year to play, and had started out this season guns-a-roaring.

Game Delayed Until 8:30 p.m.

Head football coach Adam Zepeda said lack of officials is reason for late start. The Longhorns host the Longhorns of Lazbuddie. (There was no bonfire this year; Supt. Ken Rosser told The Pulse a bonfire can be a safety issue.)
