

Neoma Williams, publisher of The Pulse newspaper, recently was presented a certificate for the Media Honor Roll by the Texas Association of School Boards. Recognizing Williams is Angie Ramirez, recent president of the Hart School Board. Williams says she appreciates the recognition. She has covered the school board for more than 30 years.

The two were members of the Texas Electronics Association, and Jerry served as district governor. They enjoyed their years in the Association, especially the annual meetings each March in Salado.

This Hart Days, say hello to Jerry and Edna, and thank them for supporting Hart.
