

Hart Senior's Art Hangs In Austin

March was recognized as Youth Art Month across the nation. During this month, the state of Texas holds a juried Youth Art Month Art Exhibit in Austin. This year, Selena Tenorio, HHS Senior, entered a piece in this Exhibit.

Her piece, "Masks" was one of 101 selected to hang in the North Gallery of the State Capitol. The exhibit hung there from March 1 to March 7. The exhibit was moved to the Austin Room at the Bob Bullock Museum and was there until March 24.

After all the students who entered the Exhibit received their certificates and state medals, the ten art pieces chosen to hang in the Governor's Gallery were announced. Then, those 16 students' whose work will hang in the new offices of the organization, Texans for Education Reform. Selena's art piece was selected as one of the 16. These pieces will be professionally framed and hung in the organization's offices for a year and then returned to the stu-

Accompanying Selena were her high school art teacher, Juanetta Bocko and her husband Jim, and Selena's mother, Priscilla Tenorio.

Weather Whys: Firenadoes

Q: You sometimes hear of a "firenado." What is it?

A: Firenadoes are whirlwinds of flame, says Brent McRoberts <<http://atmo.tamu.edu/profile/BMcRoberts>> of Texas A&M University. "They are also called fire devils or fire whirls, and they are whirlwinds of flame that sometimes occur when intense heat and gusty wind conditions combine to form a tornado-like structure of fire. The formation is a result of the strong upward motion of very hot air, which leaves an area of lower pressure at the base of the fire. Strong winds swirl around this low pressure area and produce a core that can be 3-5 feet wide, can be 100 feet high or more, and can reach up to 2,000 degrees."

Q: Where do they occur most often?

A: They seem to appear most often in hot and arid parts of the
