

Junior High Ladyhorns Continue Unbeaten

(information submitted by Gloria Godino)

The junior high Ladyhorns traveled to Anton on Monday, Jan. 20, to take on the Lady Bulldogs, and continue their unbeaten season. Hart won 21-12. (They are considered having one loss because of a forfeit on Nov. 25 due to bad weather.) Lilly Ramirez led Hart with 11 points; Jazmine Carrasco added six, and Eden Trevizo and Natalie Gonzales each had two points.

On Monday, the Ladyhorns trounced Cotton Center 20-8. Ramirez had ten points; Jazmine Carrasco and Candyce Neudorf, four each; and Natalie Gonzales had two.

Junior High Longhorns Lose To Anton

The junior high boys lost 29-38 to Anton on Monday, Jan. 20. Max Espinoza had eight points in the effort; Isaac Barron, seven; Alejandro Guevara and Manual Lujan, four each; and with two each were Ulises Vega, CJ Waddell and Pedro Cisneros.

Cotton Center cancelled the boys' game.

The Ladyhorns and Longhorns will be in the District Tournamnt on Feb. 13-15 in Whiteface to determine the champion.

Realignment For Ladyhorns Still In Playoff Hunt

The biennial reclassification and realignment by the University of Texas Interscholastic League has been announced.

Coach Adam Zepeda told The Pulse on Tuesday that in footbll, Hart's district opponents are Happy, White Deer, Nazareth and Miami.

In basketball, Hart is joined by Lazbuddie, Nazareth, Kress, Springlake-Earth and Amherst.

Longhorns Lose To Whiteface and Whitharral

The Longhorns have struggled this season to stay in the win column. They lost to Whiteface 59-68, and to Whitharral 53-59.

The Longhorns will have an open night on Friday, as Lazbuddie did not field a boys' team this year.

Adam Zepeda, head coach for the Ladyhorns said that the Ladies are still in the hunt for a playoff spot, in spite of back-to-back losses. The Ladyhorns lost to Whiteface 29-31 and then lost to Whitharral 34-41. On Tuesday, the Ladyhorns lost 38-68 to Lazbuddie.

On Tuesday, Zepeda said that Lazbuddie and Anton are tied for first place, and Whitharral is next in line.

Hart faces Anton today (Friday).
