

Obituaries

Roberto Gonzalez

May 12, 1950, in Mission, Texas.

He lived in Hart for 61 years and was a Deacon at St. John's Catholic Church in Hart for over 25 years. He is survived by his wife, Beatrice Gonzalez of Hart; one daughter, Yolanda Capelo and husband Dr. Mel Capelo of Pasadena; two sisters, Consuelo Fuentes of California and Alicia Peña of Mission, Texas; and two grandchildren, Chelsea Capelo of Houston and Brandon Capelo of Friendswood, Texas.

He is preceded in death by one son, Robert Anthony Gonzalez.

Mark Stroebel

Mark Stroebel, 56, of Dumas, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, May 13, 2014. A graveside service was held at 2 p.m. on Saturday, May 17, 2014, in Fairview Cemetery in Pampa with Rev John Sanders, pastor at First United Methodist Church of Dumas, officiating. Arrangements were entrusted to Morrison Funeral Directors.

Mark entered this life on January 7, 1958, in Lubbock, Texas, to Andrew William and Catherine (Dodd) Stroebel. He was reared and educated in Olton, Texas, and graduated from Olton High School in 1976. Mark went on to attend Texas Tech University, where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in 1982 and where he met his future bride, his love, Jo Adair. They married on August 1, 1981, in Pampa. He later earned a Master's in Educational Administration from West Texas State University in 1988 and a Mid-Management in 1991 and then a Superintendent Certificate from Sul Ross State University in Alpine, Texas.

Mark began his career as a teacher/coach at Hart High School in 1981, and then became the Athletic Director/Assistant Principal/Teacher from 1983 to 1988. Beginning in 1988, he became the Principal for Hart High School until 1992 when he came to Dumas as Dumas Junior High School Principal. In 2005, he was named Assistant Superintendent, and in 2011, he became the new Superintendent for Dumas ISD.

Mark loved every aspect of being a family man and one of his favorite pastimes was trout-fishing in Red River, New Mexico. Mark held many titles in his life, but some of the most important ones were being a loving husband, father, son, uncle and friend, who genuinely cared for all.

Since moving to Dumas in 1992, Mark was a member of Chamber of Commerce, Dumas Noon Lions Club and served on several councils at his church, First United Methodist Church. Mark will be missed dearly by all who knew him.

He is preceded in death by one sister, Julie Ann Stroebel.

Mark is survived by his wife: Jo of the home; one son: Brandon Stroebel and wife Kaysha of Canadian; two daughters: Andrea Broxson and husband Chance and Shae Stroebel, all of Dumas; parents: Andrew William and Catherine Stroebel of Olton; brother: Vance Stroebel of Flower Mound, Texas, and his children, Dillon Stroebel of Flower Mound and Aarika Stroebel of Lubbock; brother: Stan Stroebel and wife Misty of Dumas and their children, Kody and Kyle Stroebel, both of Dumas; mother-in-law, Joan Adair of Pampa; one brother-in-law, Kerry Adair and wife Anita of Canyon and their children, Austin Adair of Houston, and Alex and Kori Adair, both of Canyon.

The family suggests memorials be to Dumas Education Foundation, Mark Stroebel Scholarship Fund, PO BOX 615 Dumas, TX 79029; First United Methodist Church, PO BOX 395 Dumas, TX 79029; or favorite charity.

Thank You

The family of Deacon Roberto Gonzalez would like to sincerely thank the wonderful parishioners of St John's Catholic Church and the community of Hart for the outpouring of prayers, kindness and generosity during the viewing and funeral for Deacon Gonzalez, May 17.

On behalf of Beatrice Gonzalez and the Capelo family, special and happy remembrances will always be appreciated and cherished for the life-long kindness that was shown to Robert by the people of Hart in the 61 years he lived here.

The family of Ricky Black would like to thank everyone who sent food, floral arrangements, called us with a kind word, sent a card or made a monetary donation in memory of Ricky. The generous donation of your time and effort in providing a meal for our family and attending the funeral service was greatly appreciated.

We realize how truly blessed

Jr. High Art Students - Standing, l to r, are Alejandro Guevara, Alyxzander Smith, Antonio Rodriguez and Adriana Rodriguez. Seated, l to r, Katie Perez, Karely Mejia, Laura Vega and Khloe Lee.

Junior High Art Students Compete In VASE

Rodriguez Receives Silver Medallion

Eight Hart Jr. High Art students, under the instruction of Juanetta Bocko, competed on May 17 in Amarillo at Crockett Middle School at the Regional Jr. Visual Art Scholastic Event (VASE).

All eight received a regional medal for their art work, and Adriana Rodriguez received a Silver Medallion, only one of two given for sixth-grade entries.

Students are Karely Mejia (8th grade), Kate Perez (7th), Laura Vega (7th), Alyxzander Smith (7th), Alejandro Guevara (7th), Antonio Rodriguez (7th), Khloe Lee (7th) and Adriana Rodriguez (6th).

These FCCLA Parliamentary Procedure team members (and sponsor) are pictured at the state FCCLA Convention and Competition held April 10-12 in Corpus Christi. Pictured, l to r, are Eloy Marquez, Mayra Maldonado, Leandra Perez, Sponsor Keila LaShomb, Camrie Neudorf, Lilibeth Nuñez and Dylan Ramirez.

courtesy photo

we are to have such wonderful friends during times like this. We deeply appreciate your kind expressions of sympathy that helped our family through this difficult time.

Thank you again with deep gratitude,

Dana, Sage and Jacy Black

FCCLA Sponsor Keila LaShomb and eight HHS students travelled to Corpus Christi in April for parliamentary procedure competition.

The students competed against 20 other teams and did not place in the top six.

While there, they enjoyed a minor league baseball game, the Texas State Aquarium, the USS Lexington and the beach.