

Eight HHS Students Participate In Art Competition

Eight Hart High school students in Juanetta Bockó's art classes participated in the annual West Texas Regional 2014 Scholastic Art Competition.

Four received silver keys: Ramon Minjarez, Camarie Neudorf, Marissa Mendez and Eleazar Esquivel. Honorable mention awards went to Cailin Neudorf, Camarie Neudorf, Gilbert Olivares, Mayra Maldonado and Julian Rojas.

These students' categories included ceramics, sculpture, photography and mixed media.

These exhibits, along with those from area schools, are on display at Abraham Art Gallery, located in the basement of Wayland Baptist University Learning Resource Center. They will be there until Feb. 14.

Dr. Candace Keller, curator for the Gallery, said that the Scholastic Art and Writing Awards, founded in 1923, is the longest running, most prestigious competition and the largest source of scholarships for creative teenagers in the United States."

Students who earned gold keys will enter in a national competition and be eligible for scholarships, prizes and a chance to have their works exhibited in Washington, D.C.

Local sponsors are Wayland Baptist University, the City of Plainview and CVB, The Plainview Cultural Arts Council Inc., the LocalEdge Area Wide Phone Book and the Plainview Herald.
