

Kaitlyn Sweet
Miss Congeniality

Larry and Sharon Davis take a seat in a bench crafted by Larry. The western benches feature iron wagon wheels, and are at Centennial Pavilion and the Fire Station. The Hart Days Committee purchased the benches last year.

Hart Days Pictures

by Neoma Williams
& Geneva Hall

Jade Ramos, center, sings the National Anthem at the beginning of the parade. Also pictured are Brad Barnes, left, and Agustin Perez, Jr., who assisted with the parade. With back to camera is co-parade announcer Mark Castillo. Jade is the great-granddaughter of Victoria Valadez of Hart and the late Frank Valadez; she is a student at Fannin Junior High School in Amarillo. She also entertained at the Miss Hart pageant.

Centennial Bank won first place in the float division. Leandra Perez, right, was their Miss Hart pageant candidate.

The Class of 1994 rode in the parade.

This Color Guard from the Lockney American Legion presented the colors at the Hart Days Parade. The center Legionnaire also played "Taps" on the trumpet.

Home is Where the "Hart" Is