EDC Meets Oct. 13

A meeting of the Hart Economic Development Corporation was held Oct. 13 at City Hall, with President Danny Rodriguez presiding. Other members present were Vickie Ethridge, Paul Ramirez and Stanley Dyer.

Discussed again were the signs for Hart businesses that the EDC discussed in September. There was no decision made, as Rodriguez said he wanted member Tony Leibel, who is the secretary and treasurer, present. Other absent members were Todd Straley and Lupe Velasquez.

The EDC has not had a November meeting.

Frankie Ann Pevehouse
April 21, 1939 - Nov. 8, 2014

Frankie Ann "Mema" Pevehouse, 75, of Hart, Texas, died on Saturday, November 8, 2014. The funeral service was held at 3 p.m. on Thursday, November 13, 2014, at Colonial Funeral Home Chapel in Dimmitt, with James Jones of 4th & Bedford Church of Christ, Dimmitt, officiating. Burial was in Hart Cemetery. Arrangements were by Colonial Funeral Home of Dimmitt.

Ann was born in Clarksville, Texas, on April 21, 1939, to the late Willie Daniel Davis and Willie Bernice (Bea) Henderson. Ann was raised by her mother and loving stepfather, Everett Cole of Hart.

Ann married Nathan Pevehouse on September 7, 1961, in Dimmitt. They were happily married until his death in 1997. With support from family, friends and the community of Hart, she survived breast cancer in 1999.

Ann was a very outgoing, strong-willed and generous woman. Her interests included family, friends, yard work, reading, discovering treasures, genealogy and candy-making.

She was preceded in death by her father, Everett Cole; two brothers, Gene Davis and Curtis Davis; a brother-in-law, Carl Baker; a nephew, Brett W. Davis; and a great-nephew, Brett C. Davis. Survivors include two sons, Charles "Chuck" Pevehouse of Locust Grove, Oklahoma, and Danny Pevehouse and wife Connie of Dimmitt; two daughters, Cheryl Hoover and Max of Hart and Ronda Cooksey and husband Gene of Locust Grove, Oklahoma; her mother, Bea Cole of Hereford; a brother, Gary Cole and wife Kathy of Hereford; three sisters, Carolyn Harman and husband Billy of Dimmitt, Linda Baker of Greenwell Springs, Louisiana, and Jane Schielock of Amarillo; two sisters-in law, Mary Davis of Conner, Montana, and Dianne

Davis of Adairsville, Georgia; nine grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandson.

Mule Deer Season Opens Saturday In Castro County

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission announces that Hale, Castro and Lubbock counties will have their first mule deer season in modern times, from Nov. 22 -Nov. 30.

TPWC says they will be on patrol and will have extra help to keep an eye on hunters.

The season is open to anyone with an appropriate hunting license.

The public can access their local game warden online, or call TPWD Austin Headquarters at 1.800.792.1112. Violations can be anonymously reported via the Operation Game Thief hotline by calling 1.800.792.GAME.

Don't Take Any Chances. Get Your Flu Shot This Fall

By Bob Moos, Southwest public affairs officer for the U.S. Center for Medicare & Medicaid Services

The flu is nothing to sneeze at, especially if you're an older adult.

About 226,000 Americans will land in the hospital this year as a result of the flu and its complications, and anywhere from 3,000 to 49,000 will die from flu-related illnesses. Adults 65 and older will account for 60 percent of the hospital stays and 90 percent of the deaths.

As people age, their immune system typically weakens and their ability to ward off diseases declines. That puts older adults at increased risk of the flu. Moreover, the virus can cause continued to Page 4

Card of Thanks

From the Family of John Lilley:

We would like to thank everyone who came out on Sunday November 2nd, to buy hamburgers and or donate to us. We feel extremely blessed and thank God that we live in such a wonderful town.

We especially want to thank:

Brenda & Manuel Nevarez

Christina Robledo & Michael Pantoja

Norma Avila and her son, Jesus Nuñez

Johnny and MaryAnn Carrasco

Stanley & Rhonda Dyer

Erasmus Mata

And, to the First Baptist Church congregation, for which we could not ever begin to thank enough.

We also know that there are some who have chosen to remain anonymous in their donation—we thank you. Also, thanks to those of you who donated for the supplies needed for the hamburgers etc. If we have forgotten someone, please know that we are thankful.
