upon us but they are written into the very structure of our being. They are in our different cells and tissues. They flow through our bloodstream. Just as an engineer stamps into an engine as to how it is to work, God has stamped onto us how we are to work. We are to work according to rule and law of God. The Old Testament calls this inner stamping the image of God. A train is made to run on the tracks; but if it jumps the tracks, it loses its freedom and self destructs. By staying on the tracks it was made for, it finds freedom, does its work and gets to where it is destined to be. (Borrowed from Abundant Living, P.11).

We need to learn to listen to the Kingdom of God within us for freedom, efficiency and fullness of life which are built into your being and mine. Let us learn from our soul by choosing God's Rule!
