Mariena Mendez

Mariena plans to attend South Plains College to study phlebotomy and then work toward her associates degree in nursing.

The daughter of Tony Chia and Maria Martinez, Mariena's favorite memory of high school was being nominated for homecoming queen as a senior, and being a member of the Homecoming Queen Court.

She was secretary of the student council and FCCLA while in high school, and also a member of the FFA.

She enjoys being with family and friends.

Johnny Menchaca

Johnny is the son of Rebecca Ledesma and Paul Menchaca. He plans to find a job in Plainview.

He has worked for Brooks Farms, and enjoys playing Pokemon on his smart phone, and listening to music.

A favorite memory is attending the 2014 prom with his "great" friends.

There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it.

Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he, by his wisdom, delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength; nevertheless, the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroyeth much good.

—Ecclesiastes 9:15-18
