

Funeral Services Held For Bennie R. Martinez, Sr.

Bennie R. Martinez

Bennie R. Martinez, 91, former longtime Hart resident, died on Tuesday, April 12, 2016, in Plainview. He had moved to the Lewisville area. A memorial service was held on Saturday, April 16, 2016, at Mulkey-Mason Funeral Home in Lewisville.

He was born on February 23, 1925, in Coleman, Texas, to Alfonso Martinez, Sr., and Maria Ramos Martinez.

He married Frances Gonzales in 1948 in Andrews, Texas. She preceded him in death on May 6, 2011. He was a member of the Catholic Church, and an avid family man. There was nothing more he liked better than to have his family around him.

He is survived by six children, Benny Martinez, Jr., Eddie Martinez, Richard Martinez, Albert Martinez, Max Martinez and Anthony Martinez; 18 grandchildren; 26 great-grandchildren; a sister, Mary Morales; and a brother, Elias Martinez.

He was preceded in death by his son, Dennis Martinez.

New Superintendent

Interim Superintendent Les Miller said the Board gave Cox a three-year contract, and his salary for the first year is $88,000. The action was unanimous; Board members present were President Erasmo Mata and members Martha Gonzales, Steven Reyna, Angelica Ramirez and Vickie Chavez.

The Board also employed Lindsey Wilhelm as an elementary teacher.

Two HHS Students Inducted Into National Honor Society

Alexcia Calderon Rosette and Candyce Neudorf were recently inducted into the Hart High School Chapter of the National Honor Society.

They join current members: Camarie Neudorf, Lilibeth Nuñez, Yeiryanaly Minjarez and Abigail Rosas.

22 HHS Seniors Plan To Pursue Education After High School

Pictured above are some of the 22 students who have been accepted or applied to institutions of higher learning. They are shown signing their commitments. In the background are Ramona Neudorf, secondary principal, and Susie Garcia, counselor.

Hart High School Principal Ramona Neudorf and Counselor Susie Garcia headed up a program on May 6 in the Hart Jr.-Sr. High School gymnasium. The program centered around 22 seniors who plan to pursue an education after high school. They have become a part of Generation Texas (GenTX).

These seniors signed commitments to higher education at the first GenTX Decision Day at Hart High School. GenTX is a statewide initiative to recognize high school seniors committed to post-high school education. It is common for athletes to sign letters of intent. So, the same celebratory atmosphere is given to seniors pursuing higher education. Fourteen HHS GenTX seniors have been accepted to their chosen institution of higher learning. The remaining eight have applied to an institution.

The students who have been accepted are: Mark Anthony Carrasco, South Plains College, Audio Engineering; David Cedillo, Amarillo College, H-VAC program; Elsa Diaz, Amarillo College, Child Development; Juan Espinoza, South Plains College, Welding; Justin Garcia, Wayland Baptist University, Psychology; Raul Gonzales, Jr., South Plains College, Nursing; Ivvan Medrano, Amarillo College, Mechanics; Yeiry Minjarez, Eastern New Mexico University, Physical Therapy; Camarie Neudorf, University of Texas at Austin, Electrical Engineering; Lilibeth Nuñez, Wayland Baptist University, Physical Therapy; Daniel Olivas, U.S. Army, Patriot Launching Station Enhanced Operator; Nola Pueñte, South Plains College, Nursing; Dylan Ramirez, University Technical Institute, Diesel Mechanic; and Michael Salinas, South Plains College, Welding.

Students who have applied, but not yet accepted, are: Jonathan Cantu, Wayland Baptist University, Athletic Training; Reymond Holguin, University of Texas at Arlington, Cyber Security; Eloy Marquez, Wolfforth Fire Academy, Fire Fighter; Windy Menchaca, Central Plains Center, Job Training; Elizabeth Minjarez, South Plains College, Undecided; Blanca Murillo, Wayland Baptist University, Fine Arts; Julian Rojas, Amarillo College, Undecided; and Erik Sotelo, Central Plains Center, Job Training.
