

Hannah Hernandez, second-grader at Hart Elementary, visits with Santa Claus at Centennial Bank's Open House on Dec. 8. She is the daughter of Luis and Britney Hernandez.

RETIRING

RETIRING from Centennial Bank, Hart Banking Center, is Aurelia Perez, assistant vice-president. Perez began working in February 1984 when the bank was Farmers State Bank. In 1987, it was purchased by Hale County State Bank and now is Centennial Bank.

She was honored with a retirement reception Friday at Hart Banking Center. Banking Center manager and senior vice-president Marty Gerber, right, presents her with a gift from Centennial Bank.

Perez is a 1982 graduate of Hart High School. She is married to Augustin Perez, Jr. The couple has two daughters, Delesa and Leandra. They have a six-month old granddaughter, A'riah.

And, Augustin and Aurelia own Master Graphics in Plainview. She will be busy working in their business, helping to raise A'riah and helping to take care of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albino Garza of Hart.

Aurelia is a member of St John's Catholic Church in Hart and is involved with Hart Days, serving many years as treasurer. She also has served on the Hart School Board, being president at one time.
